The Blues Rangers Set to Perform at Frying Pan Park

Soul stirring blues combine with conservation spirit and know how when the Blues Rangers perform their own blend of Mississippi delta blues at Frying Pan Farm Park on Friday, August 11, 2006.

United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Forest Rangers by day, the Blues Rangers perform collateral duty by combining their musical talents while spreading a message of environmental conservation. Home-based at De Soto National Forest in Wiggins, Mississippi, they're deeply rooted in the Mississippi blues traditions and have shared the stage with musical greats Chuck Leavell and Eric Clapton.

Come out to the Frying Pan Farm Park Visitor Center, a beautifully adapted 1890's dairy barn, to see them perform. The concert begins at 8 p.m., doors open at 7 p.m., general admission, tickets $5. For more information or to reserve tickets by phone call 703-437-9101.

The Blues Rangers will be performing in the Frying Pan Farm Park Visitors Center which is located at 2739 West Ox Road Herndon Virginia. Frying Pan Farm Park may be reached by taking Beltway Exit 49 (which is Route 66 west) to the Route 50 west exit. Follow Route 50 west to a right on the Fairfax County Parkway until it meets West Ox Road. Turn left on West Ox Road and follow to the Visitor Center entrance on the right.
